ARCHBALD.

One of the prettiest of June ceremonies took place here yesterday morning when Miss Maggie Duffy and John F. Boland, two well known and esteemed young people, were wedded. St. Thomas' church, where the marriage was performed, was comfortably filled when the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march heralded the approach of the bridal party. As they came to the altar rail they were met by Rev. T. J. Comerford, pastor of the church, and the simple yet solemn words were spoken which united the young couple in matrimony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Marie Duffy, while a brother of the groom, Mr. P. J. Boland, served as groomsmen. The bride and her maid were very beautifully dressed. The bride wore a becoming dress of cream silk, trimmed with lace and ribbon to match. Her hat was of white lace, with silk embroidered crepe and flowers. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses and carried a white plush prayer book. The bridesmaid wore pink silk, trimmed with lace and ribbon, and a white leghorn hat trimmed with ribbon and pink crepe. She carried a bouquet of pink flowers. The groom and his attendant wore the customary black. After the ceremony a nuptial mass was celebrated by Father Comerford, and as the bridal party walked down the aisle Miss Mamie Foote gracefully played a wedding march.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Duffy, of Cemetery street, and many friends called to congratulate the young couple. Breakfast was served for their immediate relations. At its conclusion Mr. and Mrs. Boland left on a wedding tour which will include a visit to Reading, Philadelphia and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Boland were employed in Jones, Simpson & Co.'s store for several years, and both possess an extensive circle of acquaintances. All who know them will hope that their wedded life will be one of continued prosperity, wherein grief shall be a stranger and merriment a friend.

About 7:30 o'clock last evening a runaway occurred. Bert Blakeslee was driving his spirited horse up Main street and Bert Trim was coming down the street on his bicycle. The horse became frightened at the bicycle, and both bicycle rider and horse came in contact, the result being a bicycle quite badly injured, Mr. Trim escaping with but a slight injury. The horse continued its run up Main street to the corner of Madison street, when it turned and was caught, after having gone very nearly to the school house.

Mr. Blakeslee and Fred Bivins, who were in the carriage at the beginning of the runaway, made a flying leap from the carriage and were unhurt.

Prof. W. G. Trim has been re-elected principal of the Forest City graded school for next year.

The Forest City Board of Trade will meet tonight (Friday). All enterprising citizens are requested to be present.

Mrs. David Chalmers, living between this place and Crystal Lake, in Clifford township, was so severely burned, on Monday evening, that she died yesterday morning. While Mrs. Thomas was sitting by the lamp reading she heard the loud crack and turning around saw the oil escaping. Of course she naturally seized the lamp to pitch it out of the house, when it exploded and her person, setting her clothes on fire. Her husband, who had retired, heard her screams and rushed to her assistance, to find her enveloped in flames. He succeeded in getting the clothes from her body, but not until she was terribly burned about the arms, stomach and breast. It is thought she also inhaled the fumes. Mr. Thomas was so severely burned about the hands and feet. Dr. Fike, of Dunstaff, attended the unfortunate woman and kept her under the effect of opiates to relieve her intense pain, but it was impossible to save her life. Mrs. Thomas is the mother of Ezra Thomas and Mr. Richard Jones, of Vandling. Funeral services will be held Saturday, at the late residence, and interment will be at Hyde Park, Scranton—Forest City News.

Rheumatism Cured and Strength Given by Hood's.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"I have taken three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and am now using the fourth. I can truly say it has made a new man of me at my advanced age of 71. I have suffered with rheumatism for many years. For ten years there has been a swelling in my sides and also under my spine joints. It was so severe I could not stoop down without pain. Nothing gave me relief until after I commenced to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have continued to improve steadily."

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures
and the pain has left my sides and knees, enabling me to stoop to the ground with ease. I am working like a young man, thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I cannot praise it enough in return for the good it has done for me, not alone for rheumatism, but also for kidney trouble."
